Good News Report

- Today was the first day with students for this school term.
- It was a great first day of school! All went smoothly; students were happy to be back; there were a few delays but no bus issues after school.
- Close to 1000 chrome books were given out at scheduling.
- Tomorrow, more chrome books will be distributed.
- Kagan training—Teachers are applying what they learned and it could be seen today in classrooms.
- Construction: The two new classrooms were used today, though the windows still need to be installed. The retractable partition to divide the meeting rooms is to arrive at the end of the week. Data wiring was finished yesterday.
- Mrs. Behne’s science room was able to be used today. There are still a few more things to fix there.
- Superintendent Turner was here today to tour the new Fine Arts Center. All is going well with that.
- All furniture for the four new rooms are here. There is only a delay on the doors, windows, and partitions.
- A BCHS logo and trophy cases still need to arrive and be installed.
- The Variety Girls’ Volleyball team is 1-0, starting off well.
- The Girls’ Soccer team is on quarantine.
- The Boys’ Soccer team had to quit last night toward the end of first quarter due to lightning.
- Our first football game is this Friday.
- The Football team received a donation to buy new football pants.
