A memo was sent to Team Leaders regarding budgets and not carrying over funds per District Office.

Allocations

At the Principal's meeting yesterday—those positions thought to be eliminated have now been restored. However, all administrators have been told to prepare for a conservative budget the next school year. No PD money is available for next year. And, there has not been a decision from Poe regarding the number of principals for BCHS next term.

May 15 is the last day to notify employees for non-renewals.

We are getting another teacher in the FMD room due to an increase of students.

This scheduling season there was an increase of students who signed up for photography and art classes; therefore, there is a need for another teacher.

Discussion followed regarding possible faculty needs for next year, the new state course numbers and descriptions, and how those descriptions match ours per the 2018-19 BCHS course book.
