Film Studies
Course # 230140-1 Grade Level: 9-12 Credit: .5

(Can fulfill .5 Arts and Humanities credit)

Film studies is a course intended to familiarize students with the particulars of film history as well as to provide them with a chance to analyze film as a visual art form. This course should appeal to any and all students who love to watch movies and discuss them in an academic setting. Students will view films from a variety of time periods and analyze how the media was created through both written and spoken analysis, as well as create a project that demonstrates their understanding of the concepts.
